JON BURGERMAN

Doodle Artist

His work involves a lot of characters. Jon Burgerman loves to create wacky characters from his imagination – often developing these into large pieces.

He is one of the leading doodle artists, credited for his creative 'Doodle' art style.

His work is a mixture of fine art, pop-culture and urban art.

He creates his pieces of work using a range of media such as fine-liner, watercolours and spray paint.

How is this relevant to what we are going to do today?
